Coronavirus - Early release of super

You may be able to access your super early where it is needed to deal with the financial impacts of coronavirus (COVID-19).

Before you apply, make sure you read the eligibility requirements at Early access to your super.

If you are a citizen or permanent resident of Australia or New Zealand and you meet the eligibility requirements, you may apply for up to two releases. You can make one application per financial year to access up to:

- > $10,000 of your super in the 2019-20 financial year (by applying between 20 April 2020 and 30 June 2020)
- > $10,000 of your super in the 2020-21 financial year (by applying between 1 July 2020 and 24 September 2020).

If you hold a temporary visa and you meet the eligibility requirements, you can make one application for up to:

- > $10,000 of your super in the 2019-20 financial year (by applying between 20 April 2020 and 30 June 2020).

Withdrawing your super early will reduce your retirement savings and may impact insurance attached to your account. You can consult the MoneySmart website for more information and you should consider whether you need financial advice before completing this application.

For more information, refer to Coronavirus – Early release of super.
